SMACNA GREATER CHICAGO'S

Annual Conference

2025

THE COVE ATLANTIS
Paradise Island, Bahamas
April 24-27

Join us for a luxurious escape to paradise!

SMACNA Chicago's Annual Conference will take us to The Cove Atlantis on Paradise Island in the Bahamas. This year's event, set for April 24–27, offers an extraordinary getaway that combines business, relaxation and adventure.

Nestled between two breathtaking beaches, The Cove Atlantis is a secluded haven offering unparalleled service and an atmosphere designed with you in mind. Immerse yourself in a world of wonder, surrounded by lush flora, architectural beauty and luxurious accommodations. Enjoy world-class dining, thrilling activities, vibrant nightlife and endless stretches of white sand beaches — all meticulously tailored to elevate your experience.

As part of this year's program, Scott Vidimos, SMACNA Secretary-Treasurer, will deliver an insightful update on the latest activities of our National association and discuss key topics affecting the sheet metal contracting industry.

Beyond business, the conference promises a variety of unforgettable experiences. Attendees will have the chance to play the Ocean Club Golf Course, a Tom Weiskopf-designed masterpiece that combines breathtaking scenery with a challenging layout. Sail on a scenic afternoon catamaran trip to the iconic Gilligan's Island. Or, join an interactive dolphin encounter to create lasting memories. Guests will also have access to The Atlantis' renowned water park, award-winning spa and first-class shopping, with spectacular views and relaxing leisure opportunities at every turn.

This year's special contractor member rate is $1,975 per couple, which includes a three-night stay at The Cove Atlantis, spa certificate, the catamaran excursion and plenty of fantastic dining and entertainment experiences. For individuals, the rate is $1,675.

Don't miss this opportunity to reconnect with industry peers while enjoying an extraordinary getaway. Beyond informative meetings and exciting activities, this conference offers a unique chance to renew professional relationships and share meaningful moments with others in the business.

Make plans to join us this April. I look forward to seeing you there!

Sincerely,

Jeff Lukitsh, President
